The Lally School of Management’s MBA program meets the needs of a business world driven by technology, innovation, and sophisticated analysis. A new kind of business leader is needed: One who knows that global challenges require technological solutions, and who can bridge the gap between the lab bench and the market. This new kind of manager not only understands finance, marketing, accounting and operations, but also knows how to translate business necessities to engineers, scientists and technologists in language they understand.

CLASS OF 2017

- MALE: 56%
- FEMALE: 44%
- INTERNATIONAL: 6%
- TECHNICAL BACKGROUND: 59%
- Total Enrolled: 29
- Average Age: 25
- Average Undergraduate GPA: 3.4
- Average GMAT Score: 625
- Eduniversal Best Masters and MBA Programs: #40