

STEPHANIE DIPALMA

Sr. Student Services Administrator

Stephanie DiPalma is the Sr. Student Services Administrator at the Lally School where she works primarily with the graduate and Ph.D. students, providing both academic and professional support. Stephanie coordinates orientation for new Lally students, plans events and activities, and conducts exit interviews before graduation. On Wednesdays, you can find her teaching Professional Development Workshop to Lally MS students.

Both her undergraduate (Russell Sage College) and graduate degrees (SUNY Albany) are in English, and she taught College Composition for over 7 years.

Stephanie was raised in Troy, and she has worked in higher education for over 10 years. She has been at RPI for a little over a year. She currently lives in Troy with her husband and son.

Fun fact: Stephanie was born in Seoul, South Korea, but grew up in Troy, NY.

